

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

The airwaves are part and parcel to public domain. This area is not the exclusive arena of corporations. There is no competition for public and small independent operators in the new corporate media domain.